

Tracy Crump's List of Clichés

Sayings, homilies, maxims, truisms, old saws, proverbs, aphorisms, euphemisms, figures of speech, adages, axioms. . .

Whatever you want to call them, clichés are the everyday expressions we've grown up with and express exactly the right sentiment for the occasion. They are familiar and comforting, like an old bathrobe, and I love them. Unfortunately, editors don't. (Read To Cliché or Not to Cliché to see why.)

Nevertheless, I made my own collection of clichés over the past few years, accumulated bit by bit from my reading, experience, family, and even television. Most of them are old, but a few have cropped up more recently. I've amassed over 1600 (with a little help from my friends) and posted them here for your enjoyment.

I once started a list of common sayings from the Bible and was surprised by how much of our everyday speech stems from Scripture. You will see Scripture references next to those I've found. Most come from the King James Version, and some may be derived from the meaning of the text rather than an exact quote.

If you enjoy these, you may want to visit other cliché sites. The best I've found is ClicheSite.com, which includes each cliché's meaning and in some cases, its origin. The Cliché Finder is another excellent source of clichés.

Love is in the eye of the beholder
[He's the] love of my life
Love thy neighbor (Matthew 22:39)
Love wholeheartedly
Lower than a snake's belly
Lower the boom
[Let's] lower your ears
Luck of the Irish
Lucky duck
Lying through his teeth

Man does not live by bread alone (Matthew 4:4)
[A] man for all seasons
Man hungry
[He's a] man of few words
Many hands make light work
Marching to the beat of a different drummer
Marvelous to behold
[A] match made in heaven
[He's having a] meltdown
Meet your maker
[He has a] memory like an elephant
Mend your fences
Met his match
[The] Midas touch
Middle-age spread
Might makes right
Milk it for all it's worth

Mind like a steel trap
Mind over matter

(Acts 20:35)
More fun than a barrel of monkeys
More than I bargained for More than meets the eye
More than the hairs of my head

how you played the game
Not worth a plug nickel
Not worth his salt
No way, José

Take it or leave it
Take it to heart
Take it with a grain of salt
Takes one step forward and two steps back
Takes its toll
Takes my breath away
[That] takes the cake
Takes the edge off
Take the bull by the horns
Take the wind out of his sails
Talked til I was blue in the face
Talking through your hat
Talk is cheap
Talks like he has marbles in his mouth
Talks out of both sides of his mouth
Talk to the hand
Tall, dark and handsome
Tanked

[My] two cents' worth
Two heads are better than one
Two's company; three's a crowd
Two sheets to the wind
Two thumbs up
Two-timer

U

Uncharted waters
[He got that] under his belt
Under the radar
Under the table

Unequally yoked (2 Corinthians 6:14)
Until the wee hours
[He's] up and down like a yoyo
Up close and personal
[It's an] uphill climb
Up in arms
Up a creek without a paddle
Up to date

V

Vanity, thy name is woman
Variety is the spice of life
[A] viper in my bosom
[A] voice crying in the wilderness
(Matthew 3: 3, John 1:23)

W

Waiting for the other shoe to drop
Walk by faith (2 Corinthians 5:7)
[He thinks he can] walk on water
Walk the line
Walk the straight and narrow (Matthew 7:13-4)
[She's a] wallflower
[I] want it so bad I can taste it
[He] wants to have his cake and eat it, too
Wash your mouth out with soap
[I] wasn't born yesterday
Waste not, want not Watched me like a hawk
Watched pot never boils
[It's all] water under the bridge
[The] wave of the future
Wave the white flag
Wear and tear
Wears his heart (feelings) on his sleeve
[It] weighs heavy on my mind
We'll cross that bridge when we come to it
Well, I never!
Went through it with a fine-toothed comb
Wet your whistle
Whatever floats your boat
What goes around comes around
What in the Sam Hill happened?
What in the world?
What part of no do you not understand?
What's done is done
What's good for the goose is good for the gander
What's on your mind?
What's up? (Wassup?)
What would Jesus do?
Way back when
[The] wheels are turning
We'll see who is naughty and who is nice
When all is said and done
When in doubt

Tracy Crump's List of Clichés

When in Rome, do as the Romans do
When it rains, it pours
When life hands you lemons, make lemonade
When my ship comes in
When pigs fly
When push comes to shove
When the cat's away, the mice do play
When the dust settled
When the going gets tough, the tough get going
When the time comes [That's] where the game is won or lost
Where there's a will, there's a way
Where the sun don't shine
Where the rubber meets the road
Where's the beef?
Whet your appetite
Which came first—the chicken or the egg?
Whistle while you work
[My] whole life flashed before my eyes
Whole nine yards
[That's a] whole other ballgame
Why are you in such an all-fired hurry?
Wild goose chase
Will wonders never cease?
Winners never quit, and quitters never win
With a little help from my friends
With friends like that, who needs enemies?
With his tail tucked between his legs
Woe is me (Isaiah 6:5)
Wolf in sheep's clothing (Matthew 7:15)
Wonder of a child
Won't cost you a red cent
[That] won't cut it
Won't see the light of day
Won't take it lying down
[His] words were smoother than butter
(Psalm 55:21)
[A] word to the wise is sufficient
[The] world is your oyster
World's worst
Worried to death
Worth his weight in gold
Wound tighter than a spring
Word of mouth
Wouldn't wish that on my worst enemy
Wrapped him around her little finger

X

X'd out (crossed out)
X marks the spot

Y

You are my sunshine
You are what you eat
You betcha
You can catch more flies with honey than you can with vinegar
You can fill in the blanks
You can lead a horse to water, but you can't make him drink
You can say that again
You can take that to the bank
You can't get blood from a turnip
You can't get there from here
You can't judge a book by its cover
You can't take it with you (Job 1:21)
You can't teach an old dog new tricks
You get the gist
You get what you pay for
You hit the nail on the head
You leave me no choice
You little stinker
You made your bed; now lie in it
You never have a second chance to make a first impression
You're a better man than I
You're breaking my heart
You're getting on my last nerve
You're only young once
You're putting me on
Your mother doesn't live here
You snooze, you lose
You take the high road, and I'll take the low road
